Short Description:

Wendy weaves storytelling with music in this interactive show about dreams. Ella dreams of being a movie star, Adele dreams of becoming a rich fancy lady and a big, green puppet dreams of being an opera singer. The audience will help the puppet sing and they will help Tortoise win the race, in a mini-musical "The Tortoise and the Hare." The show ends with a wonderful message: no matter how tough the journey "Don't Be Anything Less Than Everything You Can Be."

Long Description:

Wendy Bennett, a singer, actress, and storyteller for over twenty years weaves storytelling with music in an interactive show about dreams. Not only do we dream while we sleep, but we dream of greatness not yet achieved. Ella dreams of being an opera singer (Johnny One Note). The audience will help Johnny sing and they will help Tortoise to the finish line in "Tortoise and the Hare" (an interactive mini-musical). The show ends with a wonderful message: no matter how tough the journey "Don't Be Anything Less Than Everything You Can Be!"
