

STEP RIGHT UP!

This is the time to make your mark.

We have the opportunity to retell the story of daredevil Annie Edson Taylor, and this time, we will do it right. Get in on the ground floor of this exciting new work by Topher Payne. How will history remember you?

This is the life of Annie Edson Taylor, presented as an evening of Vaudeville's finest entertainment. Much of the story is true. The rest should've been.

Queen of the Falls by Topher Payne makes its world premiere April 19-28th on the GET stage. Topher Payne's shows have been produced all around the country, including Off-Broadway. This is the 8th play GET has commissioned from Payne, and we are excited for the opportunity to debut this compelling new piece.

We have an exciting variety of Vaudevillian Sponsor levels to choose from, ranging from ventriloquists to magicians to firebreathers. Whether you give $5,000 or $50, you'll be recognized in the playbill and on posters in the lobby, and you'll have the satisfaction of knowing that YOU made the production possible!
